Rare is the sight when fashion doesn't turn heads, and this event, held on Saturday in the Capital, was a testimony to that. Using fashion as a medium to showcase and promote Khadi and Ahimsa silk, the show brought together many designers to put spotlight on sustainable and environment-friendly fashion processes on the same platform.

Designers like Rina Dhaka, Rohit Bal, Varun Bahl and Diksha Khanna were seen at the event, too.

The show saw an eclectic mix of guests, including ambassador of Indonesia to India, Sidharth R Suryodipuro, politicians Vijay Goel and Udit Raj, among others.
